VOL. VIII. NO. 13.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

COCHRAN'S CASE.

The New Orleans Picayune of January 9 has this to say about the setting down of Jockey Cochran:

"By order of the stewards, Jockey Cochran, who is perhaps entitled to rate as one of the most popular riders in the country, stands suspended for one week. This edict came yesterday, after an amazingly bad ride in the second race on the filly Amigari. It is a decision that everyone will admit was deserved, and the reason given for it, 'indifferent and apparent inconsistent' work, is, in plain words, letting him down easy. Ever since he came here he has been furnishing rapid-fire changes of form that would not have been tolerated from any other boy. Few take a dishonest view of his riding, the general opinion being that he has been abused, that is to say that he has been forced to keep on riding when nature and humanity almost demanded that he be given a rest.

"He has been hard at work for about fifteen months, doing heroic work day after day, that is riding more frequently than the heavyweights, who have had years of experience to develop in. His very features show the strain to which he has been put. He has not complained, but has gone on striving to do what nature rebelled against. Many have wondered that the powers have not stepped in and demanded that he be given a rest. Short as the vacation is now to be enforced, it is certain to do him good. Were it for a month, or the entire meeting, the greater would be the charity conferred.

"It has since last fall been understood that this boy was to ride for W. C. Whitney next season. Now comes the statement from his father to the effect that the contract was either never signed or canceled after it was, the reasons given for this are that he, the father, would not agree to some of the terms included in the papers. Among those to which parental objection was made were a clause that required the boy to be at the stable to gallop the horses; another that he go to England if Mr. Whitney so desired, and a third that when Trainer Rodgers was ready to break the yearlings he would do his part in the general schooling. Had the boy fulfilled all these requirements he would be better off than he is just now. It is true he has earned considerable money here, but with the financial gains has come a loss of prestige that it will be difficult to regain. Had the boy been turned over to J. M. Rodgers, Mr. Whitney's trainer, it would have been a guarantee of a bright career. Mr. Whitney, in his turf dealings, has proved himself a prince of men. Mr. Rodgers, as a trainer, has for years, and does still, class as one of the best of his craft. Under the sponsorship of these two gentlemen the boy would have had every chance to work into the position of the best lightweight in recent years. As it is, retrogression has set in, and he has lost favor fast. To-day he stands with the unenviable mark of being suspended for inconsistent and indifferent work."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Josie G.'s brilliant achievements have attracted the attention of Clarence Mackay of New York. He has wired his agent, E. White, to interview the owner of this smart filly and have him put a price on her. This will be done as soon as Mr. Gibson, the owner, can be located. By many she is conceded to be the best filly that has been seen in California in many years. In all of her races excepting that of last Thursday she has won with such great ease that it is hard to tell just what she is capable of, nothing before ever having pushed her.

In the Supreme Court of New York recently John T. Eagan, one of the stockholders in the Saratoga Racing Association, made an application for a peremptory writ of mandamus to compel the association to exhibit to him the books and accounts showing the secrets of the organization and the vouchers showing the disbursements for salaries and printing, etc., before he votes. It is alleged that Eagan has proof that much money has been squandered in various ways by the association. Lawyer Gooden, who represents the association, opposed the motion and said an inspection of the books had not been denied Eagan, but Secretary Knapp had not felt that he was at liberty to permit him to go through the books and vouchers until the Board of Directors had met and considered that subject. Justice Dugro adjourned the matter for one week.

Concerning Conroy's engagements in England, Judge Burke in Daily America of January 7, has this to say:

"In looking over Conroy's engagements in England the writer found that he was in three stakes there the value of which amounts to more than $115,000. And this not including the Gold Cup, Alexandra Vase and such other stakes as will close to-day, both in this country and in England, Mr. Vossburgh acting as the English Jockey Club's agent in the matter. The Gold Cup, about two miles and a half, is worth $15,000 in added money, and there is a condition that the cup is of the value of $5,000. Nominations to this race may be made sealed up, to be opened after the Oaks has been run. Sealed nominations for which forfeit may be declared before the expiration of the time of opening may remain unopened. No doubt the fact that Conroy had already been engaged in the three stakes mentioned had much to do with his being sent abroad."

Henry Ziegler, one of Cincinnati's most prominent owners of thoroughbred horses, has returned from Lexington, where he spent the last ten days. Mr. Ziegler brings the information that Ogden, which was one of a lot of high-bred stallions that reached Lexington a few days ago, is a very sick horse. "Ogden was taken to Hamburg Place and a veterinarian called in immediately after his arrival," said Mr. Ziegler. "He is a very sick horse. Madden only recently refused $15,000 for him. There is more activity among the breeding farms than ever before. I did not make any purchases, principally because I did not see what I wanted. I am looking for a high-class youngster, but found none that suited. I visited all the great breeding farms, and it is truly a great sight. My horses at the Kingston Farm were in excellent condition." With Mr. Ziegler during this conversation sat a gentleman from the east, who imparted the information that Tod Sloan will soon be given a license by the English Jockey Club, but that he will ride in this country and probably his own horses.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Rome Respass, of Cincinnati, has purchased of T. H. Stevens, Walnut Hall Farm, near Lexington, Ky., the two-year-old chestnut colt, by Wadsworth—Modjeska and the two-year-old bay colt, by Wadsworth—Clara K. Price $6,000 for the two. The one out of Modjeska is a brother to Merito, and the other is a brother to Bristol. The dams of both have produced a number of good horses. Henry Ziegler, of Cincinnati, had offered $3,500 for one of these colts.

Bermuda, the race horse which Byron McClelland pronounced the best horse he ever trained, not excepting the great Henry of Navarre, has been sold by W. J. Tracy, of Lexington, Ky., to parties in southern Kentucky, for a private price. McClelland paid $5,050 for Bermuda when he was a two-year-old, and won about $55,000 in stakes and purses with him. He sired King Bermuda, Francis McClelland and other good horses after retiring to the stud.

There is to be a new breeder in the Blue Grass regions. Joseph Redmond, well known in the east and elsewhere as the trainer for the late Marcus Day and for Capt. S. S. Brown, has purchased a farm in Bourbon county, near Paris, Ky., and will stock it with runners. The farm cost Mr. Redmond $19,000 and contains about 130 acres of fine blue grass land.

Winner—Ch. h. by Tammany—Buttermere. Went to post at 2:16. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Senator Matts is improving, and under a perfect and lucky ride throughout, ran a good race finished strongly. Mont Eagle also finished fast and would have won in another stride. Plead favors soft going but ran well and closed a big gap in the last quarter. Invictus finished strong. Gibraltar sulked in the stretch although favored throughout by being left alone as pacemaker. Merops, nearly left, trailed to the stretch where he was unable to come through next to the rail and was pulled up. Watch him on a soft track. Nellie Forest quit almost to a walk. Mallakwa went well to the stretch. Scratched—30205 First Shot, 111; (30189) Einstein, 111; 30072 Darlene, 104; 30208 Kastaine, 104; 30205 Fridolin, 99.

Overweights—Senator Matts, 4 pounds; Mont Eagle, 2; Nellie Forest, 3. Senator Matts, show, 2 to 1. Mont Eagle, show, 9 to 5. Plead, show, 3 to 5. Merops, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. f. by Meddler—Springtime. Went to post at 2:45. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Colonial Girl was given a lucky start and perfect ride and took the lead in the stretch, but was pressed at the end by Jarretiere d'Or. The latter closed up fast and gamely after a stormy trip. Rubus, off very badly, trailed, then made a wide stretch turn, closed up strongly and might have won and the effort to get a prominent position in the first half tired her. Jacqueminot broke slowly and wants a longer route. Watch Louwelsea. She was knocked back on the far turn. Scratched—(30141) Dr. Schaff, 110; 30187 Mythrox, 108; 30171 Constable, 105; 30187 Moabina, 103. Overweights—Jarretiere d'Or, 1 pound; Louwelsea, 2. Colonial Girl, show, 1 to 3. Time. 23.42.

Winner—Gr. f. by Captive—Leora. Went to post at 3:07. At post 4 minutes. Start good for all except Hudson. Won easily; second the same. Lizzie Rice outlooked the field and had been highly tried. Off well she easily outran the others and was much the best. Venecia was given a lucky start, is very consistent and fully ran her race. Adirondack looked big but ran a remarkably true race and will improve. Tom Mitchell failed to stick to his work right at the end. Past Master did well and is steadily improving. Hudson was pulled up at the start and ran up to the field with a phenomenal burst of speed. Throw out his race. Overweights—Venecia, 1 pound; Past Master, 2; Montezuma, 2. Lizzie Rice, show, 3 to 5. Venecia, show, 6 to 5. Adirondack, show, 6 to 5. Hudson, show, 2 to 5.

Time: 1:10.

Winner—B. g. by Friar Tuck—Czarina. Went to post at 3:36. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. J. Boggs, favored by his light weight, closed up steadily on the outside from a fair start and finished with a rush, winning in the last stride. Frank Bell, fresh and good, showed his old-time speed and stayed well. Constellator broke slowly, was bothered in the first quarter, but finished fastest of all and was probably best. Headwater had no mishaps. He was outrun to the stretch, but finished well. Sister Jeanie wore herself out and helped to beat Frank Bell by making the pace hot. O'Connor's waiting tactics will greatly improve this filly. Rey Dare went well and is improving. Kenilworth was quite lame in his preliminary.

Overweights—Frank Bell, 1 pound; Sister Jeanie, 1. J. Boggs, show, 4 to 1. Frank Bell, show, evens. Constellator, show, evens. Headwater, show, 1 to 2. Sister Jeanie, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Lord Clifden—Tenny B.
Went to post at 4:02. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Pat Morrissey beat the gate, nothing forced him to do his best in the first part of the journey and he just lasted long enough. He is fresh and an improved horse. Bragg was best and could not have lost if sent after the winner from the start. Picador was shut off and pulled up at the start and given a very bad ride. He closed a tremendous gap and was a good horse badly messed about. Watch him over a distance. Tyrannus failed to stay well. Rush Fields went well for seven furlongs. Sylvan Lass ran a good race for her. Castake is a bad one at present.

Scratched—30192 Crinkle, 107; 30189 Katherine Ennis, 102.

Overweights—Tyrannus, 3 pounds; Castake, 2.
Pat Morrissey, show, evens. Bragg, show, out. Picador, show, 2 to 1. Tyrannus, show, 2 to 5.

30226 SIXTH RACE—7-8 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. m. by Calvados—Katrinka.
Went to post at 4:26. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second handily. Coming Event beat the gate and showed brilliant speed throughout, but King Dellis, which was driven from the start, was wearing her down at the end. The latter ran the best race he has yet shown here. Sir Lewis ran gamely and finished strongly, but was pinned in next to the rail in the last furlong or he might have won. He is in good form. Colonel Ballentyne, off poorly, closed a big gap and was going fastest of all at the end. Parsifal closed a big gap from a bad start. Autumn Time quit badly. Bassenzo is also a quitter. Ned Dennis got off very badly and is best on a heavy track.

Scratched—29937 Midnight Chimes, 117; (30163) Rose of Hilo, 117.

Coming Event, show, 1 to 2. King Dellis, show, 3 to 5. Sir Lewis, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Take Notice—Hoolou.

Went to post at 2:18. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Homage finished fast, wore the leaders down after coming wide at the stretch turn and got up in the last couple of strides. Life Line ran surprisingly well and came again at the end. He saved ground at the home turn and finished next to the inside rail. Azua ran well throughout, but was tiring at the end. Fannie Maud was used up in setting the pace and tired in the stretch drive. Van Hoorebeke ran badly and seems to be in poor form.

Overweights—Bequeath, 1 pound.

Homage, show, 2 to 5. Life Line, show, 4 to 1. Azua, show, 2 to 1. Dramburg, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Albert—Lady Craft.

Went to post at 2:46. At post 9 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Lady Alberta had to go around the leaders to get to the front, but came away easily in the stretch and was under restraint. Choir Master was as easily the best of the others. Beauty Book showed speed, but hung when it came to a drive. Churchill closed a big gap. Somersault tired badly after going a half. Tros was practically left.

Overweights—Lady Alberta, 2 1/2 pounds; Beauty Book, 3; Sandflea, 1; Churchill, 1 1/2.

Lady Alberta, show, 2 to 5. Choir Master, show, 7 to 10. Beauty Book, show, evens.

Winner—Blk. h. by Falsetto—Virgelene.

Went to post at 3:17. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Radford began slowly and fell out of the front division in the first part of the race, but gradually wore the leaders down and catching Choice tiring at the end, managed to get up in the last stride. Choice showed the most speed to the stretch, but found the journey too long. St. Wood ran well and outgamed Sir Kingston when it came to a drive. The latter did his best. Glade Run was away tangled up and was not persevered with. Throw his race out.

Overweights—Choice, 1 pound; St. Wood, 1; Sir Kingston, 1.

Winner—B. c. by Volante—Miss Florence.

Went to post at 3:47. At post 24 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Johnny McCarthey trailed to the stretch, where he joined Jessie Jarboe, and after a drive through the last furlong won in the final stride. Jessie Jarboe showed the most early speed, but tired near the end. Andes had a rough trip, was in a jam at the first turn and again in the stretch run. Alfonso ran as if he was out for work. Cast Iron was very sore. Grantor tired in the stretch drive.

Overweights—Johnny McCarthey, 1 pound; Grantor, 2 1/2; Cast Iron, 3; Alfonso, 1 1/2.

Johnny McCarthey, show, 7 to 10. Jessie Jarboe, show, evens. Andes, show, 1 to 2. Grantor, show, out. Cast Iron, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. f. by Pirate of Penzance—Bettie Wilson.

Went to post at 4:36. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. The first four contested it out closely through the length of the stretch. Pirate's Queen and Free Admission were going away the last twenty yards, but the former outstayed the latter and won in the final stride. Free Admission was strongly ridden and ran to his best form. Monos did his best and finished strongly. Little Tim was in close quarters next to the inside rail and Dean took him back in the last ten yards. With a clear track he would have been a keen contender. Annie Thompson was knocked sideways when rounding the first turn and had a very rough trip.

Scratched—30152 Shut Up, 96.

Overweights—Free Admission, 1 pound; Zack Phelps, 3 1/2.

Pirate's Queen, show, 4 to 5. Free Admission, show, 3 to 5. Monos, show, out.

Winner—Br. c. by His Highness—Lilith II.

Went to post at 5:03. At post 16 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Carl Kahler raced Marie Bell into exhaustion in the first half, stood off challenges from Kaloma and Eva Rice and was going away at the finish. Kaloma ran an excellent race and finished strongly. Eva Rice hung after racing up to the leaders in the stretch. Sir Florian was in a pocket next to the inside rail on the back stretch, had to come to the outside at the home turn and lost a lot of ground by this move. Marie Bell showed fine speed and ran a good race.

Scratched—30147 Star of Bethlehem, 104; 30167 Fourleaf C., 402; 30201 Amigari, 93.

Overweights—Marie Bell, 1 pound; Sir Florian, 3; Add, 1 1/2; Gassoon, 4; Weird, 2.

Carl Kahler, show, 7 to 10. Kaloma, show, 6 to 5. Eva Rice, show, 6 to 5. Sir Florian, show, out.

Winner—Ch. f. by Kingston—Mary M.

Went to post 3:04. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Alzora out-classed her company and won with ridiculous ease. Jessie Y. was bumped into and knocked off her stride while going around the first turn, but recovered and finished well. Boland, on Robert Gray, out-finished Miller on Randolph, Jr. for third money. Lady Aintree and Bad Penny suffered from early interference and both finished stoutly.

Scratched—30153 Ordeal, 110.

Overweights—Lady Aintree, 5 pounds.

Jessie Y., show, 2 to 1. Robert Gray, show, 3 to 5.

30228 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $150. 3-year-olds. Allowances.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In discussing some of the recent London sales of thoroughbreds an English authority has this to say: "One of the biggest lotteries is the breeding and sale of blood stock. Experience shows that winners often turn up in inexpensively purchased animals. Santoi, the winner of the Jubilee Stakes and the Ascot Cup, cost 190 guineas. Handicapper, the sensational winner of the Two Thousand Guineas, was bought as a yearling for 380 guineas. The 1897 yearlings sold for something like £40,000, and the only winner out of the lot is Le Blizon; 1898 proved a bad year for the purchase of high-priced stock, and of the 1899 lot only Pietermaritzburg has come out with credit. George Faber's colt won the Jockey Club Stakes and two minor stakes, and so got back his purchase price of 2,000 guineas. The 1900 yearlings have not done much this season as two-year-olds. Sceptre cost 10,000 guineas, and has won 2,455 guineas; Mr. Platt's Ice Maiden cost 1,900 guineas, and has won £460, and so on. The costly failures during the just-ended season include Cupbearer, Flying Lemur, Sandflake and Ormelie, all of whom have failed to score. This little lot cost upwards of £25,000."

Captain Samuel Brown, owner of the famous Garry Hermann, has announced names for a number of two-year-olds which are to represent his stable in the many races at Chicago and other western tracks. The horses are all declared to show promise, and there is one cracker-jack in the bunch. Captain Brown is looking for a jockey for his western stable. He will use Odom in the east, where his racers will be trained by Peter Wimmer. The latter writes his employer that Hyphen, last year's fine racer, is spreading out and will be heard from the coming season. The new string of two-year-olds are:

Penance, ch. f. by Pirate of Penzance—Sunlight. Pluck, br. f. by Pirate of Penzance—Industry. Rheta, br. f. by Lamplighter—Senorita. Prism, b. c. by Henry Young—Crystal. Marcan, br. or b. c. by Falsetto—Allah. Tancred, ch. c. by Troubadour—Unadilla. Lampon, ch. f. by Lamplighter—Mona. Airlight, b. f. by Lamplighter—Sunbeam. Pirate, b. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Gallop. These are all of Captain Brown's breeding. They are being trained in the west by Tucker. They are entered in events here.

The betting privileges for the spring meeting of the Memphis Jockey Club have been awarded to George C. Bennett, of Memphis, Tenn. Other bidders were C. A. Tilles, of St. Louis, and Chambers & Walker, of Hot Springs. Any reputable bookmaker will be allowed to draw in at the meeting.
